The fitting-out works on the 9th floor of Yasumoto International Academic Park mark the first smart office renovation of its kind at The Chinese University of Hong Kong (CUHK) and has awarded Platinum rating under BEAM Plus Interiors v2.0 Beta Version.

The awarded project has transformed two separate office units into a single, flexible open-plan workspace. Painted with the colour palette of the United Nations' 17 Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs), the newly renovated space is home to over 30 members of staff of the Social Responsibility and Sustainable Development Office (SRSDO).

During the site visit, you will have the chance to explore the agile office design and experience a range of smart office features that have been incorporated to enhance efficiency and productivity.
